

Right now, I'd like to change things up a little bit and introduce you to very special comedy group from New York City. What makes them special is, not only do they do spoken comedy, they're professional singers as well, and they take the songs you hear every day and rework them so they sound like you wrote them about your life. They've performed all over the world and we're very excited to have them with us today. Please join me in welcoming the group E Entertainment calls the hottest ticket in town, The Water Coolers!
